Member training:

- A. Members received a list of the current councillor training offered by SALC. It was noted that all the training was in Somerton, this was felt to be to far away by some. Cllr Kelly had already signed up for Code of Conduct training. The Chairman agreed to attend the Council as an Employer course.

- B. The Clerk offered to run a Councillor Essentials training event just for Members on the 14th of August, this being the basic training that is offered by SALC to new Councillors preferably within their first nine months in Office. Members accepted the offer.

Action – the Clerk

NB: Apologies were found to have been received from Cllr Beresford after the close of the meeting.
