Reader's Message

It is the harvest season and time to give thanks for all that makes life possible. You would be most welcome at the Harvest Thanksgiving services on 6th October:

10.00am at Beckington,

6.30pm at Rodden

(Berkley, Lullington & Orchardleigh held theirs on 22nd September).

If you come and would like to bring a small gift for Frome Foodbank, they are looking for: tinned meat & fish, meal in a tin (including curry), tinned vegetables, biscuits, instant coffee, soup, tinned snacks, juice, long-life milk, & toiletries.

With so much confusion and uncertainty around, some may wonder what there is to give thanks for. For some there may be personal hardship and difficulty and none of us feel like giving thanks when life is grim. But the reality is that there is always hope.

I have just been reminded of a young and destitute widow, Jane D'Esterre. In her despair, she thought about ending her life in the river. But then beyond the river she saw a young man ploughing and singing cheerfully. His happiness in his work encouraged her to go on. Some years later she remarried and had a son who went on to become a leading evangelist and teacher. There is always hope, and a thankful heart is one way of unlocking that hope.

You may not know of an Old Testament prophet named Habakkuk. He lived at a time when his people, Israel, were in dire straits yet he did not give up hope. He wrote these amazing lines:

*Though the fig tree does not bud, and there are no grapes on the vines,
Though the olive crop fails and the fields
produce no food,
Though there no sheep in the pen and no
cattle in the stalls,
Yet, I will rejoice in the Lord, I will be joyful in God my Saviour.*

Rejoicing and thankfulness go hand in hand - they should be our natural response to God's love for us. He is constantly giving us tokens of his love if we will but see them. They, together with all that we read about Jesus in the gospels, assure us of his faithfulness to all his promises to us. Habakkuk lived some 600 years before Jesus came, yet he knew that God was trustworthy and had something better for him than empty fields. It was that sure hope that enabled him to rejoice.

A few months after Jane D'Esterre overcame her despair she was listening idly to a preacher, when the words of his text, "God so loved the world...", struck her with fresh reality. Michele Guinness tells the story in her book The Guinness Spirit: "It was as if Jane were hearing the familiar words for the first time, that God loved not 'the world' in general, but Jane in particular, that this was a love which would not let her down and could perhaps make life less of the intolerable burden it had become."

Life may be hard but there is so much to give thanks to God for.....

Standerwick Harvest Festival Service

Thursday 3rd October Standerwick Harvest Festival service 7pm at The Standerwick Centre, Frome Market.

Lullington & Orchardleigh

The end of this month should see the completion of the restoration of the west window at

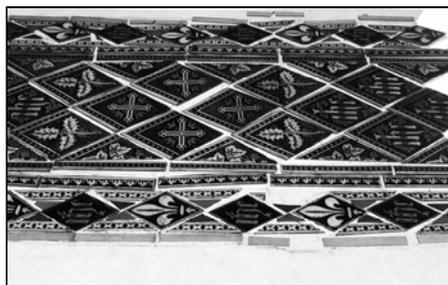

All Saints, Lullington. The stone work has now been repaired and the glass is being cleaned and re-leaded at Holy Well Glass in Wells. Meanwhile, the organ and font are covered to protect them from damage. Once this work has been completed there will still be more work to do. Recently a large lump of plaster fell from the ceiling in the nave and the PCC is now looking at a way to secure the ceiling for the future. The architect suggested further falls could be prevented by covering the ceiling plaster with plasterboard. The PCC suggested that instead of plasterboard some kind of insulation would be better as this would do the same job of preventing plaster falls with the added benefit of maintaining heat within the building. We are awaiting proposals from the architect.

Psalm 127 begins, 'Unless the Lord builds the house, its builders labour in vain.' It is our intension to keep the church building in as good a state of repair as possible so that it can stand as witness to the Christian faith for future generations and that the gospel can continue to be preached every Sunday. We believe that our labours are not in vain!

Glyn Bridges

Recently members of the parish visited the Conservation Studios in an old mill in Wells to see the work underway. The photos show work on the window underway in the main studio and some of the glass on the light box for viewing.

Harvest

The introduction will cover how the society started and some of the astronomical events that we have witnessed during those 21 years. A short session on the basics of astronomy will be followed by a display of telescopes, binoculars and cameras with amateur astronomers to explain how to use them. You will also be able to see some of the fantastic images taken by our Chairman. There will be tea / coffee & biscuits during the evening. The programme we plan for each year is drawn from members' views and we shall hold a Q&A session during the evening to help our planning. If you would like to join the society it is just £15 for the year - join at this meeting and it will work out at less than £2 per meeting up to June next year. We meet at the Beckington Baptist Church Hall starting at 7.30pm.

Please come along and meet members of your local Astronomy Society.

Berkley School

I hope this letter finds you all well and enjoying the summer holidays. May I take this opportunity to introduce myself as the new head of Berkley First School. I am extremely excited about my new post and about meeting all the members of the wider school community.

The summer holidays for me are a time to recharge, relax and reflect in readiness for September. Rest is holy and whilst we like to plan it is good for us all, especially children, to have the space and time to sit, observe and tap into our imagination. I like to spend time on the beaches of Cornwall with my family and friends. Whilst I am there this summer, I will be thinking about Berkley and all the children who will be preparing for their first day.

A little bit about myself, I moved to Frome 4 years ago, having previously lived in Bath and then Dilton Marsh. I live with my husband and two sons, and previously worked in a village C of E Primary School on the outskirts of Bath where I loved being part of their community. I understand how unique small schools are and how much we need the wider community's support. It is now time for me to join in the fun here and to build new relationships with the Beckington Group of Parishes.

We have an action-packed term planned and I really appreciate all the hard work that has already gone into the preparation for September.

I look forward to hearing all about the children's adventures and to sharing the term ahead.

Suzanne Thompson,
Head teacher

Rode & District Gardening

For our September meeting we welcomed Bryn Bowles to talk about "Doing your bit for bees."

After starting from scratch, Bryn ran a successful nursery in West Harptree culminating in medals at RHS shows. Now he is extolling the value of bees as a very necessary part of our food production chain and as part of the greater diversity of life. Bees are important for pollinating flowers to produce crops in our own gardens but are used in commercial nurseries in massive movements of hives across the country to cover the different flowering periods of crops. Hives can be moved to different areas to make the most of particular flowers to produce single variety e.g. heather-honey. Local honey will have particular tastes and benefits. Much of commercial honey is blended from sources all over Europe and some contains corn syrup to make it cheaper.

Manuka honey comes from bees feeding on varieties of leptospermum plants grown in different areas of New Zealand. It is labelled with a UMF (Unique Manuka Factor) number. This is measured by a viscometer and higher numbers will be suitable for the most specialised medical needs such as use on open wounds and therefore most expensive.

There are many challenges facing bees from varroa mite, climate change leading to loss of habitat and actions such as concreting over gardens which can contribute to flooding. Use of chemicals such as glyphosate, can directly affect bees and other insects when sprayed and may be having unforeseen effects in the long term. We can do our bit by providing food for bees for as long a season as possible. Lawns can be turned over to wildflower meadows which will encourage a wide variety of insects which will in turn develop habitats for other wildlife. We can provide nectar rich flowers early in the year with hellebores, pulmonarias and mahonias. These can be followed by bulbs and fruit tree blossom. The perennial geraniums such as 'Roxanne' provide flowers for weeks. Later in the year the season can be extended with sedums, rudbeckia, echinacea, solidago and persicaria. Ivy, if allowed to grow and flower will provide a good source of nectar late into the winter.

Bryn had some suggestions to help us all do our bit for bees.

- Hand weed and never use chemicals.
- Leave some wild corners.
- Raise the cutter blades or make a meadow.
- Support local honey
- Avoid the possible disruption of cell phones
- Become a bee-keeper

We thanked Bryn for a thought-provoking talk.

Next month we have our coach outing to Hilliers' Arboretum and Garden in Hampshire on Monday 7th October. Spaces still available, contact Sari 830257 or Helen 831228.

Standerwick, Berkley and Beckington W.I.

In September, Waffa Powell demonstrated and taught us all Belly Dancing. When her children were grown up she wanted a new career. As she likes talking and interacting with people, she decided to train as a councillor. To pay for her studies, she started to teach Belly Dancing as it was something she has always practised (she did graduate as a councillor!). Her Belly dancing classes become very popular and has been teaching for 14 years.

Belly dancing is 2,000 years old. Women in Arabic countries did not have the freedom they have now, they were much more restricted to the home. Belly dancing was something they could do at home on their own or with a group of friends. They could have fun and express their feelings. It is practised by women for women and is very good exercise, but must be to Arabic music as it is a cultural dance. It is a sensual dance not sexual, very good exercise and teaches you to walk and stand tall. You do not need any special costume or shoes, you can be bare foot if you like. When there is a celebration men sometimes also join in a group, but generally they are not so good as the ladies. Waffa demonstrated how to move your hips and arms, and then persuaded nearly all of us to stand up and have a go, resulting in much merriment. The moves all looked very easy, but somehow we did not look the same as Waffa! However everyone had a good time. Waffa also gives talks and demonstrations with Arabic food.

Members were reminded about the glass workshop in November.

Beckington School

We have had a very positive start to our new school year. The new reception children have settled in beautifully and have quickly learned the new routines at the same time as making lots of new friends. Our Year 4 children are being excellent role models for the rest of the school and our peer supporters are taking their responsibilities very seriously on the playground and encouraging lots of positive play.

Our Federation with Mells Church of England First School started with an INSET day on 2nd September, exploring everyone's strengths with a VIA questionnaire and looking at ways we can all improve our well-being. The day took place in the picturesque Mells Walled Garden and involved some meditation and laughter yoga as well as forest school activities. The combined staff and governors enjoyed exploring the school vision and ways of ensuring the well-being of all our children. Outdoor learning is an important part of our curriculum and Forest school sessions take place for each class on a weekly basis. Take a look at our new website to see how we are developing our STEAM curriculum and to see pictures of what the children have been learning.

www.beckingtonandmellsfederation.co.uk

Our musical input this year includes Mr Large visiting each week to teach ukulele, which Owl Class have been embracing! We are also looking forward to being involved with Jackdaws Year of the Bassoon and Miss Knight is organising to take the choir to Young Voices in Birmingham in January.

Our sporting activities so far include a visiting cricket coach who has been teaching the children to develop their throwing, catching and fielding skills through lots of fun games. 'The Dance Lady' has been energetically inspiring the children to create dance sequences around topic themed ideas, which the children have also enjoyed.

Our topics this term are 'Amazing Arizona' and 'Nature, Nature, Everywhere'. We hope to be able to share some of their compositions with everyone soon.

We are looking forward to our harvest service which will take place in St George's Church on 9th October. This follows our open day on Tuesday 8th October from 2pm.

At Beckington, Owl Class have begun reading the classic children's story, The Indian in the cupboard by Lynne Reid Banks. Here is a selection of their work so far .....

Tuesday 10th September

The Indian in the cupboard

The main character is Omri, he has a friend called Patrick who gave him a toy Indian on his birthday. He also has two brothers called Gillon and Adiel who gave him a cupboard so he could put his Indian in. His mum and dad gave him a skateboard. When he tried to open his cupboard it was locked, luckily his brothers had lots of keys so Omri looked and then he found one. Just as he turned it, his mum came in. He told her he found one then she said "That's the one that she had". Omri put his Indian into his cupboard and locked it. Then he got into bed, just as he was starting to go to sleep he heard a noise. After that he heard nothing so he went back to sleep. In the morning he heard it again, then he carefully opened the cupboard and the Indian wasn't on the shelf any more, he was at the bottom; he tried to pick him up but he stabbed Omri with his tiny knife and said "you touch, I Kill".

Beckington Group Mothers' Union

Our first meeting after the summer break was very friendly and well attended, and we continue to welcome members from Frome and Norton St Philip. The opening service was led by Eleanor Sames, with a reading from the works of Eddie Askew, a popular Christian author and theologian, and prayers for our fellow MU members in Sudan, Nigeria and India.

A letter from the head of fund-raising at Mary Sumner House was read, thanking us for the money raised from our cream tea for the Summer of Hope appeal. We are also now ordering Christmas cards, calendars and diaries and members were encouraged to look at the wide range of attractive gifts which can be purchased from the latest catalogue.

Our friend Gill Redman from Warminster made a welcome return as our speaker. This time her talk was about Venice, brought to life with pictures capturing some of the different aspects of this amazing city and Gill illustrated her talks with humorous personal anecdotes. It was a most enjoyable afternoon.

Next month we are going to Fairfield Farm at Dilton Marsh for our Harvest Lunch. This will be on Wednesday 2nd October at 12 noon. Transport is available.

Beckington Parish Council

Church Street / Hill One-way proposal:

At the annual Parish Meeting in March a resident requested that the Parish Council apply to Somerset County Council to make Church Street / Hill a one-way road. The Parish Council resolved not to take any action until it had consulted with the residents of the roads. A letter was hand delivered inviting a response. The Parish Council received many responses, this showed a majority supported keeping the road as it is. As there would have needed to have been a large majority of residents in favour of the one-way proposal for the Parish Council to support it, it is not something the Parish Council will pursue. However, the Parish Council will be writing to both the schools to ask that that have and enforce a rigid policy for parents dropping of their children at the school. It was noted that some of the journeys start from Beckington Village itself, so within walking distance of the school.

Footpath to the Farm Shop:

The Parish Council is actively exploring a way to create a footpath from Beckington to White Row farm shop that doesn't involve crossing the A36, this would rely entirely on the good will of landowners as currently no right of way exists. The Parish Council does hold some money that can be used to install styles or steps or gates.

Vacancy for a Parish Steward:

The Parish Council is looking to appoint a Parish Steward. The position is self-employed and will be around a day's work per week, this could be all in one day or spread over the 7 days, it would be up to the post holder to organise their time. Tasks would involve cutting / strimming grass / cutting hedges, sweeping roads / pavements, maintenance of the Councils assets (mostly the Bus Shelters), filling grit bins, emptying bins and all sorts of other odd jobs that will come up within the year. The Parish Council will set a jobs list every month and expect time sheets to be submitted. As the post is self-employed the Parish Steward would need to provide their own equipment. Over time the Parish Council will start to obtain some of its own equipment for use. While a paid role, this position is very much a community one for someone who is proud of the Parish and would like to spend some of their time keeping it looking nice. If you are interested in applying to become the Parish Seward, then email the parish Clerk with your CV, covering letter and your proposed rates.

Beckington Memorial Hall

I need to start with the usual call to arms - not sure exactly how you do that but if you have thoughts on how to improve the overall facilities, if you wonder why something that is obvious to you isn't obvious to us (and I'm sure there is), if you have brilliant ideas and energies to put in to fundraising for the play area and bettering of the facilities of the Village Hall please let us know.

You don't have to join the committee, though that would be nice, come along to a meeting and let us know.

Now there's a thought, the AGM (with nibbles and a sherbet!) is happening on:

October 21st 7.30 in the Hall - put that in your diary and make a list. We know you have a list!

Fireworks!

November 2nd! Hog roast! Bar! Hot chocolate! More oohs and aahhs than you could shake a stick at! Winkle out your shekels and folded stuff, delve in to the back of the sofa and behind the cushions, grab those coins (they're not doing anyone any good there) and come along. Music, lantern parade, good food and fireworks.

What more could you want?

That's it then.

Come to the AGM. Go on, you know you want to.

The (new) Card Club

We are a relatively new group, whose numbers are slowly growing, however we are always looking for new members.

We meet on the third Thursday of the month in the Clifford Suite of the Beckington Memorial Hall from 2.00-4.30pm – plenty of free parking available.

The charge is £10.00, which includes all materials and a cup of tea or coffee. Each time we meet we aim to make two greetings cards and a 3D project, for example so far, we have made gift boxes, a decorated notebook, bookmarks and gift tags. We use a variety of crafting techniques including stamping, die cutting, embossing and colouring using a variety of media.

This is a friendly group and all are welcome both experienced crafters and those who just want to have a go.

If you would like to join us or would like more details please feel free to contact me, my email address is jeanettehurst09@gmail.com, or Katie katie71phd@me.com

Our next meeting will take place on Thursday 17th October.

Somerset County Council is asking everyone to stand up for care by signing their online petition calling for action. The more signatures of support obtained will help to raise the profile of this campaign. Your help in circulating this would ensure that as many people as possible are aware of this and help in trying to end the shortfall in social care. One day we all will need access to social care of some degree and improvements to social care funding is essential. Thank you.

Cllr. Linda Oliver
Somerset County Councillor, Frome
North Division.

#Standupforcare

Cross-party discussions by Christmas 2019 to end social care
funding shortfall

Please standupforcare: the people who receive it & those who provide it,
by signing this petition

Sign this petition

The petition, which is gathering support across local government and the care sector, calls for cross-party discussions before Christmas to end the well-documented financial shortfall in social care.

Government funding hasn't kept pace with the growing demands of an ageing population, leaving councils up and down the country struggling to provide the support and care that people deserve.

The country needs a plan to fund social care in the long-term and your County Council is proud to be playing a lead role in forcing the issue.

Leader of the Council, Cllr David Fothergill, launched the petition this summer and said: "There is nothing more important to Somerset than looking after vulnerable people. "The system for social care is broken – and this council is the one demanding change and is standing up for care." You can sign the petition by visiting: www.somerset.gov.uk/standupforcare - it only takes a few seconds to add your name, but you could be helping bring about change that lasts lifetimes.

Earlier this year Somerset helped put care in the spotlight by working with BBC Panorama on its Crisis in Care documentaries. These films were seen by millions and showed the difficult decisions that come with meeting the growing demand for care at a time of limited funding.

The powerful stories of inspiring families, carers, social care staff and volunteers have played a big part in pushing the issue right to top of the political and public agenda. Our thanks go to everyone who took part.

Everyday around 6,500 people in Somerset receive some sort of care, thanks to a network of nearly 300 care providers. Last year our care spends accounted for nearly 40 per cent of our whole net budget. And, with Somerset's population ageing faster than the national average, the pressures are being felt here more than many other parts of the country.

Cllr. Linda Oliver
Somerset County Councillor, Frome
North Division.
